The Cover Shot

RESIGNATION vs DETERMINATION

Take a minute to study this photo and what do you see?

A centenarian whose weather beaten look and expression suggests resignation to poverty or a determined fighter?

This photograph captures in exquisite detail every line, and facial feature.

Harsh mid-day natural light accentuates the wrinkles of this woman.

A dark simple plank wood background to suggest her spartan living conditions.

In any case, a steep challenge for our plastic surgery colleagues, wouldn't you say?
